MALARIA ELIXIR BABEK WILL CURE

ELIXIR BABEK is a Southern remedy for an ailment best understood in the South and in all hot countries, where miasmatic conditions prevail. No part of the United Stajes is, however, free from the dread scourge, which saps vitality and exposes the system to the attacks of malignant disease. HOT WEATHER is coming on. If, instead of warming, invigorating you, there is a chill feeling of winter lingering in your blood, MALARIA is yours, and ELIXIR BABEK will cure it—taken in time will prevent it.

BABEK will cure it—taken in time will prevent it.

Washington, D. C., Oct. 15, 1900.

Gentlemen: This fall my little girl was again attacked by malaria. I sent for a bottle of ELIXIR BABEK, and I must say it has passed my most sanguine expectations. She has entirely gained her normal condition and has no signs of a return of the dread disease. One-half bottle only was used.

Amazing Theory About Women.

"The souls of all pretty women go to school to the devil before entering on earthy enterprise!" Startling theory, is it not? And there are others just as enthrallingly nteresting in Gertrude Atherton's great novel, "Rezanov." which is to appear ex-clusively in The Saturday and Sunday Star during October, beginning Saturday, October 6. Interest in Kindergarten Work.

The residents of Garfield and vicinity assembled Wednesday night at Garfield Hall in large numbers in response to notices sent out by the teachers of the recently established kindergarten in that section. The purpose of the meeting was to get the mothers together and give them some idea of the ers together and give them some head of the results sought to be obtained through kinder-garten training. The exercises were ar-ranged and the meeting presided over by Mrs. Cora Wilkinson, principal, who was

Mrs. Cora Wilkinson, principal, who was aided by Miss Hardy, her assistant.

Mrs. Wilkinson explained in detail the origin of the kindergarten, its purpose, and made mention of a few of the many advantages derived from such work. Miss Hardy followed with suggestions to the mothers on how to prepare the little ones for the different seasons of the year. Much interest was manifested in the remarks of Miss Campbell directress of kindergarten, who Campbell, directress of kindergarten, who gave illustrations of the work and instruc-

After going through several of the regular kindergarten exercises and listening to en-couraging remarks by many parents, the meeting adjourned with every one appar-ently better pleased at having been present. The teachers are much encouraged at the outlook. This is the first season of a kindergarten in this section, and its progress, it is stated, is being closely watched by the whole community.

Possible Robbery Prevented.

Mr. B. F. McGuigan, who resides on 10th street near G, states that while on his way to his home about 12 o'clock a.m. last Tuesday he discovered a large packing case close to the wall of St. Patrick's Church on the 10th street side and in a position to aid one desirous of entering the church. Mr. McGuigan pulled the box to the edge of the terrace and while he was examining it no-ticed two men emerge from the alleyway at the south side of the church. They pro-ceeded across the street and into the shadow of a building as if seeking to avoid be-ing seen. Mr. McGuigan followed them to the corner of G street, where they disap-peared. He then, he says, in order to pre-vent the box from being used as an aid in robbing the church, carried it to his home. Next, reflecting that other means could be taken to enter the church, he determined to appoint himself watchman for the night, and until daybreak Mr. McGuigan stood on guard about the church. Several times during the night, he states, he saw two men a square away acting in a suspicious manner, but they never approached sufficiently close for him to get a good look at them.

DIETZ. In sad and loving remembrance of our dear daughter, LEONA E. DIETZ, who de-parted this life two years ago today, October 5, 1904. Only a lock of golden hair That I gaze on with ceaseless pain, Worn by an image pure and fair, That never shall bless me again.

She went like the mist of morning, To shine with the stars above; A beautiful, chaste adorning In a realm of endless love. Yet often when evening twilight

Encircles my heart with gloom, I hear her voice from the starlight That sparkles within my room. And I see through the mystic moonbean Her form so rare and fair, A radiant light from heaven so bright, With tresses of golden hair. MAMMA AND PAPA

"Home is sad, O God, how dreary;
Lonesome, lonesome, every spot;
Listening for her voice till wears,
Weary, for we hear it not.
Though cast down, we are not forsaken;
Though afflicted, not alone.
Thou hast given, Thou hast taken,
Blessed Lord, Thy will be done."
